

CAPE ROYALE LUXURY HOTEL WINS 'THE LUXURY HOTEL AWARD FOR 2009'

27 November, 2009 – The Cape Royale Luxury Hotel and Residence, Green Point, South Africa, is proud to announce that it has been selected as the Overall Winner of the Luxury Hotel Award, for 2009, in the 'All Suite' category at the World Luxury Hotel Awards, held at the world renowned Lebua at State Tower Hotel in Bangkok, Thailand this week.

The crème-de-la-crème of the world's luxury hotels, from Peking to Lisbon and Dubai, were shortlisted for this prestigious award. The 2009 World Luxury Hotel Awards™ Gala Ceremony is one of the most exclusive and glamorous events on the global hotel industry calendar.

This Award was established as a celebration of ultimate achievement in global hotel excellence, congratulating and recognising hotels that through superior Guest satisfaction and outstanding distinction have created an exceptional international hotel. The World Luxury Hotel Awards™ are accepted as the pinnacle of achievement for Luxury Hotels, Resorts & Lodges worldwide.

The World Luxury Hotel Awards™ account for all categories in the Luxury Hotel industry and recognises Hotels, Lodges & Resorts on the global front, that fall under the "luxury niche". Award winners set the benchmark for luxury establishments in achieving recognition for their world class facilities and service excellence.

Commenting on the Award the Owner of Cape Royale Luxury Hotel and Residence, Mr. Paschal Phelan said, "This is not just an outstanding achievement for our entire team after just two years in business, but conformation that world class hotel accommodation is available in Cape Town in the run up to the World Cup. Coming on top of our recent selection by distinguished Preferred Hotels as their first Super Luxury hotel in South Africa, this has been a memorable few weeks for all our staff".
