The Fairlawns Boutique Hotel & Spa

FAIRLAWNS BOUTIQUE HOTEL & SPA in Morningside, Johannesburg, South Africa, was one of only two South African finalists in the 2009 World Hotel Awards in the Luxury Boutique Hotel category.

The World Luxury Hotel Awards are accepted as the pinnacle of achievement for Luxury Hotels worldwide. This award was established as a celebration of ultimate achievement in hoteliering. It is about congratulating hotels that have taken the extra step and such differentiated themselves from "good hotels" to "exceptional hotels."

The Fairlawns Boutique Hotel & Spa is a 5-star hotel with all the attributes desired in a boutique establishment by the discerning global and local visitor: superb accommodation, a Bali-styled spa, tranquil gardens, a gourmet restaurant and professional conference and special events facilities.

The newly restored plush Terrace Restaurant at the Fairlawns leads the way for the next phase of the hotel's further major refurbishments, whereby it will offer 40 suites from May 2010, incorporating design materials to complement the global trend of maintaining an eco-friendly environment.

Whilst Fairlawns is sought-after for its timeless palladian design and bespoke décor, old world charm and always gracious service, Michael Kewley, who recently joined as general manager, is also introducing bright young ideas to complement the hotel through staff training and those quirky touches that are not only appreciated by the hotel's regular guests but will also create added attractions for young discerning visitors.

The Fairlawns is that five-star home from home, where exclusivity is key and the city seems far removed, yet, only minutes by car to the major business and shopping centres of the thriving metropolis of Sandton in Johannesburg. The hotel also offers transport to major airports and local attractions, such as the Cradle of Humankind.

Facilities:

The Rose Terrace Restaurant seats 36 for breakfast, lunch and dinner; accommodation includes 19 privately situated suites (40 suites by May 2010); conferencing for 10-80 guests; banquets, weddings and special events are professionally catered for, with great attention to detail.
